Official Opening of the Timmins Regional Office

North Bay, December 1, 2008 – Conseil scolaire public du Nord-Est de l'Ontario (CSDNE) is proud to announce the official opening of its new regional office in Timmins. The opening ceremony will take place on Friday, December 5, at 2:30 p.m. at the Timmins regional office, located at 111 Wilson Avenue. Among the guests will be Mr. Micheal Doody, municipal councilor of Timmins.

The new regional office will accommodate 10 employees, including the Manager of Educational Services, Mr. Simon Fecteau, two service branch directors, as well as educational counselors and support staff. This professional and dynamic team provides support services to all CSDNE schools in the Northern region, more specifically in the communities of Timmins, Iroquois Falls and Kapuskasing.

“The opening of the Timmins regional office certainly confirms the Board’s commitment to its Northern communities and is a recognition of the continual increase in enrolment experienced by the CSDNE, along with its growing needs in terms of educational services,” stated Mr. Ghislain Beaupré, Director of Education. The vice-president of the Board’s Northern region, Ms. Nicole Arcand, states that “the Timmins regional office ensures the Board’s ongoing presence in the CSDNE’s Northern region.”

Please note that the inaugural meeting of the Board will be an in-person meeting in Timmins, following the official opening ceremony for the regional office. Conseil scolaire public du Nord-Est de l'Ontario covers a territory measuring 46,453 km² and operates schools in Timmins, Iroquois Falls, Kapuskasing, Temiskaming Shores, Sturgeon Falls and North Bay. Over 1,650 students attend a French-language public school in Northeastern Ontario.
